Second Congressional District. MR. EDITOR: One thought that is sgitating the minds of the voters of the Second District, is the selection of a suitable man for the next place. We man of 2d Ward, at the ensuing January elecability, whose record is clear, and whose morals are good. It behooves to put one of our best men on the from the Fifta Ward at the ensuing municipal election. track in the coming contest. We think one of the most suitable in every respect will be found in the person of Dr. J. Nat. Lyle, of Dandridge; and while we know not who the aspirants may be, and while we say nothing to the detriment of any one, we know the fidelity and patriotism of the Doctor can not be gainsaid; and, as Jefferson county feels she is entitled to furnish the next man, we insist that he deserves the consideration of the voters of the District, and, if honored with the race, will, in every respect, merit the confidence of the people.

Fatal Accident at Coltewab. Last Monday, Benjamin Glover, aged about twenty years, son of W. B Glover, living about three miles northwest of Ooltewah, was engaged in trying to fire a load from a rifle After snapping two or three caps, he remarked to his mother, standing near, "I don't believe this gon is leaded," and placing the butt on the ground proceeded to blow into the muzzle, raising the hammer with his muzzle, raising the hammer with his foot. The words were scarcely out of his mouth when the gun fired, and the young man fell to the ground and instantly expired, the ball entering the mouth and lodging somewhere near the base of the brain. It is supposed that the gun "beld fire?" after the last cap exploded, as those standing near do not think the hammer slipped before the gun discharged, Glover was a young man of fine

Who Take Orders to be Filled in Other States Must Pay a

A very important decision was ren dered in the Supreme Court, Saturday, on a question which has troubled our on a question which has troubled our merchants for some time past. The Court adopted the opinion of Judge Cantrel in the case of L. Fritch vs. R. L. Singleton, Clerk of the County Court of Bedford county, thus affirming the judgment. Fritch, who lives in Indiana, by his agent, J. H. Clarkson, took orders for clothing to be believed by expect C. D. D. those $1,256 (5 shipped by express, C. O D, to those purchasing them. Singleton, insisting that Fritch was liable to the payment of a privilege tax, levied upon the goods in the express office for the non-payment of license. Judge Cottrell decided that the Clerk was right, and that persons doing that kind of business are required to take out a privilege license. And so says the Supreme Court.—Nashville American.

An apology: "But, Freddy, how could you ever think of calling aunty stupid? Immediately go to her and tell her that you are sorry." Freddy goes to sunty, and says: "Aunty, I am sorry you are stupid!"

The finding of "Russian gold" among the buried treasures of Yakoob Khan 2,419 19 at Cabul was received by the British soldiers as a bit of circumstantial evidence very like the live fish in the milk can.

> "I never turn out for scoundrels," said a bully, meeting a Quaker, and stepping square before him to inaug-urate a quarrel, "I do," said the Quaker, and placidly took the other side of the way.

> Growth is the reconcilement of permanence and change. Because of life there is growth; therefore, both per-manence and change. We give not the life, yet by our good or bad training we hinder or help its fairest and fullest advance.

Without earnestness no man is ever great or does really great things. He may be the cleverest of men; he may be brilliant, entertaning, popular, but he will want weight. No soul-moving picture was ever painted that had not in it the depth of shadow.

A young man who, after exhanging vows of eternal constancy with his sweetheart, went forth to seek his fortune, got a situation with a strolling circus company, and wrote to the girl be left behind him that he was "doing duty on the tented field." And she was proud of her patriotic lover.

A writer in a young ladies' paper says: "Never marry a man on a small salary." Now, there is good advice for you, girls. Always wait until you have laid up enough to furnish the house and keep the dear fellow in cigars and other lollipops. Man is a delicate creature and needs tender

THE SUN FOR 1880

THE SUR will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashior, now pretty well under-1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well under stood by everybody. From January 1 to Decem ber 31 it will be conducted as a newspaper, writ ten in the English language, and printed for the As a newspaper. The Sun believes in getting all As a newspaper, THE BUR believes in setting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expanditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily makes up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and arises an income which it is at all times preup. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read Ins Nux; and they all derive satisfact; no f a mesort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its commons on size, and infairs. The Nux beliaves that the only guide of pales should be common sense, inspired by genuins American principles and before by honesty of purpose for this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely indepe dan of parry, class, rique, or ganization, or interest. It is for all, but of none it will continue to praise what is good and reprobate what is evil, using case that its language in to the point and plain, beyond the pusticity of being misunderates d. It is unifind enced by motives that do not apread on the surface; it has no opin ons to sell, as we those which may be had by any purchaser for two ceats. It has injustice and raceasity even more than its largest of the property of the party of the property of the propert affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store or the necessity of resolute vigitance on the part of every cities who desire to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Precidential election, to be held in Nevember. Four year ago next November, the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was therated by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and benchairies of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 ha repeated in 1889. The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant and insolont Administration intrenched at Washington. The Sux did something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the copile. Will they unceed? The coming year will being the answer to these memontous questions. The Sux will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them cearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.
